

I, Mark Schwartz, do hereby vehemently object to the proposed franked distributions and capital raising legislation changes. Especially in terms of franking, any change would amount to at least a partial reintroduction of double taxation and this is out and out WRONG and prejudices those invested in the stock market which is also totally unacceptable.

Therefore, I urge an immediate re-thinking on the proposals as they currently stand.

(Dr)Mark Schwartz