

Dear Director

I object to the proposed legislation changes.

As a retired business owner and having self managed Super Scheme I have organised my investments on current legislation. I feel it is most unfair after working for 51 years and not receiving any government benefits other than medicare etc that is available to all residents that the government is now considering moving the goal posts.

Yours Sincerely

Paul Tierney