

The Treasurer Jim Chalmers
Parliament House

Dear Mr Chalmers

This is another attempt at punishing people who have worked hard to be self reliant.
Deciding not to attach themselves to the welfare system. We should be rewarded instead being the subject of envy and punishment.

How about leaving us be. Having lived frugally and saved I am now being punished. The greatest punishment is retrospective change. please reconsider this impost on our life

Regards Matteo Tricarico