

Prior to the election you took franking credits off the table, I vote for Labour given this was no longer an issue, you have lied to me, no more support for you, I'm a self funded retiree if you change this I will arrange my affairs so I go on a pension.