

Hello

I would like to object to proposed legislated purpose of superannuation.

Could reference to "equitable and sustainable" be used to restrict investment options to ESG only? People should be able to select investment options to maximise their returns and should have the option to disregard ESG considerations if they choose to.

Reference to government support is not needed. This aspect can be achieved via social security or pensions legislation.

Best regards

Kirill Reztsov