- 14 1. Did the five emerging policy themes Prosperous, Inclusive, Sustainable, Cohesive and Healthy resonate with meeting participants?
Yes
- 15 If not, why not (200 words)
Not answered
- 16 2. Which of the following themes are most important to you? (Select 3)
Sustainable: A natural environment that is valued and sustainably managed in the face of a changing climate for current and future generations
Healthy: A society in which people feel well and are in good physical and mental health now and into the future
Inclusive: A society that shares opportunities and enables people to fully participate
- 17 3. Which themes or descriptions were most frequently discussed? (Select 3)
Cohesive: A safe and cohesive society that celebrates culture and encourages participation
Inclusive: A society that shares opportunities and enables people to fully participate

Sustainable: A natural environment that is valued and sustainably managed in the face of a changing climate for current and future generations

- 18 4. What do you see as the most important issues for future wellbeing?
Are these captured by the emerging policy themes?

Environment - Recovery of biodiversity

Education - an education system that is designed and delivers a holistic and diverse education.

Money in politics - Community are not consulted as much as those with influence and financial power

Technological advancement - access to improving technology driven by the right things

- 19 5. How might the descriptions be amended to best reflect our priorities?

The themes are interconnected. For us everything came back to health and the environment. We were a little confused about the difference between inclusivity and cohesion

- 20 6. Are there any indicators and existing data sources that will be critical to inform the emerging policy themes?

Threatened species list, SLATS reports, Emissions

- 21 7. Is there any additional information you would like to see in the Measuring What Matters Statement? If so, please outline.

Some form of happiness index tracked against the other already listed themes. It should not be assumed based on other indicators but should be assessed in process of consultation with community
