

Include land and zoning in competition. It used be excluded. We must make 'land' (in 3 dimensions - ie space for homes) more competitive to drive down housing costs. Zoning (and all land use restrictions) have a huge regulatory burden that decreases land competition and increases housing cost.