Specifically, on a trip to Kosovo: the primary purpose of the trip and a diary record of work meetings/events on particular dates. If easier and more efficient for responding, the names of the organisations are suffice and the names of individuals can be omitted.

Ms. Hughes travelled to Pristina, Kosovo to attend the 2024 Government Borrowers Forum (GBF). The GBF is an invitation-only event that convenes senior officials of countries issuing in international capital markets and treasurers of supranational organisations to share debt management strategies and experiences, and to exchange views on capital market topics of common interest.

This event was hosted by the Ministry of Finance, Labour and Transfers of the Republic of Kosovo and was co-chaired by the World Bank Treasury. Presentations at this event included topics directly relevant to the work of the AOFM, including public debt management trends and issues, monetary policy, market developments, global outlook, and geopolitics. Additionally, Ms. Hughes appeared on a panel during the event to discuss Government options for sustainable finance.

INVITATION

2024 Government Borrowers Forum - June 10-13, 2024 - Republic of Kosovo

We are pleased to invite you to the next Government Borrowers Forum (GBF) that will take place in Pristina, Kosovo from Monday, June 10 (evening) to Thursday, June 13, 2024.

The Ministry of Finance, Labour and Transfers of the Republic of Kosovo will host the event that will be co-chaired with the World Bank Treasury. This year's agenda will feature presentations from host government representatives and other officials from debt management offices and companies around the world. The event begins with speakers and sessions on the global outlook, geopolitics, monetary policy, and market developments. Other topics include financing the energy transition, disaster risk management, sustainable finance, and the impact of digitalization and AI on financial markets. The GBF will conclude with a panel with debt managers sharing experiences and views on public debt management trends and issues.

The GBF is an invitation-only event that convenes senior officials of countries issuing in international capital markets and treasurers of supranational organizations to share debt management strategies and experiences, and to exchange views on capital market topics of common interest. It is held under Chatham House Rules. The World Bank Treasury manages the GBF Secretariat and has been organizing the event in partnership with host countries for over three decades.

Travel in 2023 to Japan (there may have been two trips in same year); the primary purpose of the trips and diary records of work meetings/events on particular dates. If easier and more efficient for responding, the names of the organisations are suffice and the names of individuals can be omitted.

Ms. Hughes travelled to Tokyo, Japan in June 2023 to attend the Australian Government Fixed Income Forum. This event is arranged by the AOFM to provide investors from Japan with an update of the Australian fixed income market from the AOFM, the Australian Treasury, the Reserve Bank of Australia, major government issuers, the securitisation sector, and institutional investors in AUD fixed income. This event was attended by around 100 individual investors from 65 institutions. As CEO of the agency hosting this event, Ms. Hughes delivered a presentation to attendees discussing Australian Government Securities, issuance and secondary market turnover data, participation of Japanese investors, and the potential for the Australian Government to issue green/sustainable bonds.

While in Tokyo, Ms. Hughes also attended meetings with investors and other stakeholders as outlined in the attached meeting schedule.

Ms. Hughes was invited as a speaker to the UNPRI Sustainable Finance Policy Conference in Japan in October 2023. This conference explores the latest developments in sustainable finance policy reform and new areas of focus for responsible investors in a changing world. As part of this conference Ms. Hughes appeared on a panel discussing Sovereign bond policy and engagement. The event agenda, which details the events attended by Ms. Hughes, is publicly available here:

<https://pip2023.unpri.org/tokyo/agenda/?VID=1420&EVID=5980>.

Any record, evidence or information about the CEO personally paying for accommodation during international travel, such as soon after arriving or soon before departing.

There were three instances between 2023-2025 where a period of private travel in conjunction with official travel occurred as part of official international travel undertaken by Ms. Hughes. On each occasion the primary purpose of the travel was official business.

Any costs associated with a period of private travel in conjunction with official travel are borne by the traveller.

For each period of private travel in conjunction with official travel Ms. Hughes was personally responsible for her accommodation arrangements. The AOFM is unable to provide evidence or information relating to these arrangements as the agency does not maintain records of employee's personal finances.
