

Our own banking facilities is great

To whom it may concern,

I think it's a great Idea to have our own bank like we originally did before, for the stability of our Nation. We need such an asset in Australia to break away from the absolute controls in place by big business to further our National interests, (build necessary infrastructure) help government govern without any restraints from external powers.

I would like all my personal details to be kept in confidence
Regards